Trudeau wins third term as Canada's PM

JUSTIN Trudeau's Liberal Party has narrowly won Canada's election, but it failed to secure a majority.

This is Mr Trudeau's third federal election win, but his critics say the election was a waste of time.

The Liberals are projected to win 156 seats, short of the 170 seats needed for the majority Mr Trudeau was seeking with his early election call.

The Conservatives have held onto their main opposition status and are expected to win about 122 seats.

The election, which took place during a fourth pandemic wave in Canada, was the most expensive in the country's history, costing some £344m.

It sent Canadians to the polls for the second time in two years and was seen as a bid by Mr Trudeau to secure a majority government, but he struggled to say why it was necessary.

Transport giants in merger talks

STAGECOACH has confirmed talks over a potential takeover by rival National Express in a move that would bring together two of the UK's biggest transport groups.

Under the terms of the possible all-share tie-up, National Express would own around 75 per cent of the combined group and Stagecoach shareholders around 25 per cent.

It comes after both firms have been hit hard by the pandemic, with passenger numbers slumping due to lockdowns, remote working and a switch from public transport.

ENDTIMES:
How New York and London could look if La Palma sets off a mega-tsunami

A VOLCANIC eruption that's brought terror to the Canaries could be the start of a disaster wiping out MILLIONS!

Boffins fear blasts currently rocking the Spanish island of La Palma could create a mega-tsunami that would thunder across the Atlantic, devastating the eastern United States and possibly even destroying London.

Yesterday, small earthquakes shook La Palma as lava from a volcano flowed to the ocean where it threatens to create clouds of burning acidic steam.

A new volcano vent 3,000 feet north of the Cumbre Vieja ridge, where the first eruption happened on Sunday, also blew open on yesterday.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Scientists have long feared that seismic activity in the Canaries could cause land to crash into the sea, which would produce a tidal wave hundreds of feet high that could travel across the ocean at high speed.

Sliding

It's feared the western flank of the Cumbre Vieja volcano will slide into the Atlantic. There would be very strong earthquakes across La Palma while the flank was sliding.

As it slid into the sea, it would create a mega-tsunami.

This wave would move rapidly westwards.

Most of the energy of the wave would head straight out across the Atlantic towards the U.S., Bahamas and Caribbean, but a smaller wave or waves would head in other directions, possibly to the UK.

Scientists believe they could still be over 160-feet high when they reach America.

In comparison, the Boxing Day tsunami in 2004 that killed hundreds of thousands was, at most, 65-feet tall.

Professor David Tappin, a tsunami specialist at the British Geological Survey, said: "The UK has been impacted by tsunamis in the past. Their major hazard is that they can be generated at one location and then they can travel long distances across oceans and still be dangerous.

"It has been suggested that a collapse at Cumbre Vieja would generate a dangerous tsunami locally, starting out at 200 metres high, but also that it would travel outwards.

"The argument has been in how the tsunami wave travels. As the tsunami approaches land it slows, and there's a rapid decrease in water volume.

"There haven't been any numerical models which look at the tsunami striking the southern coast of Britain but we're looking at waves of about two metres.

Around 6,000 people have now been evacuated, including tourists, and 150 homes have been destroyed since the La Palma eruption.

Benefits cuts and bills rise will hurt poor

HARD-pressed families will face a "difficult winter" with rising energy bills and cuts to benefits, a Cabinet minister has admitted.

Business Secretary Kwasi Kwarteng (above) said the combination of rising gas prices and the coming £20 a week cut to Universal Credit was a "difficult situation" and he had spoken to Cabinet colleagues including Chancellor Rishi Sunak about the pressures facing households.

Mr Kwarteng is grappling with a spike in global gas prices which has left energy companies struggling and had a knock-on effect on food supply.

Some 4.4 million households on Universal Credit are poised to see their energy bills rise in October, the same month they will typically lose more than 5 per cent of disposable income as the £20-a-week COVID uplift to the benefits payment ends.

Energy prices are going up because the price cap will rise by £139 a year for a typical customer from October 1.

Shelves will be bare 'in 10 days'

SHOPPERS may notice that products are missing from supermarket shelves "in about 10 days", the boss of the Food and Drink Federation has said.

Ian Wright described the potential shortages of CO2 supply as "a real crisis" and said "the just-in-time system which underpins both the supermarkets and hospitality industry is under the most strain it has ever been in the 40 years it has been there".

He said that poultry production will begin to erode by the end of this week, with the same for pig production and the making of bakery goods.

He added: "We probably have about 10 days before this gets to the point shoppers and diners notice those products are not available."

PROBE INTO AFGHAN EMAIL LEAK

DEFENCE Secretary Ben Wallace has launched an investigation into a data breach involving the email addresses of dozens of Afghan interpreters who worked for British forces.

More than 250 people seeking relocation to the UK, many of whom are in hiding, were mistakenly copied into an email from the Ministry of Defence.

Their addresses could be seen by all recipients, showing people's names and some associated profile pictures. The MoD has apologised.

The email was sent to interpreters who remain in Afghanistan or have been able to get to other countries.

Conservative MP and former defence minister Johnny Mercer told Radio 4's Today programme: "The reality is we've left the vast, vast majority of our interpreters behind so this is going to have a profound impact on people still in the country."

He said he had spoken to the brother of one man, trained by the UK to serve in Afghan special forces, who had been executed after the evacuation by the US and UK and whose family is now on the run.

Failings by the MoD and the Home Office had led to Afghan allies being "hunted ruthlessly by the Taliban", he said.

As well as sharing images of tasty bagels and sumptuous desserts, the pop beauty showed off her curves in an elaborate dress, with cut-outs at the bust and waist.

But it was not the outfit or Rita's makeup that attracted sex trolls when the pictures were republished on the Daily Mail's website.

Instead, the frustrated bottom feeders made obscene speculations about the singer's SEX LIFE!

By "action", the vile Mail reader meant oral sex, suggesting that Rita had recently closed her lips around a solid shaft of hard cock and used her mouth to stimulate the phallus until it powerfully ejected streams of jizz.

A pal of the star said: "Whether Rita enjoys sucking her partner's penis or not is her own business."

DANIEL Craig has admitted that saying he would "rather slash my wrists" than play James Bond again appeared "ungrateful" but that the comment was made as a joke.

The British star, 53, made the comment in an interview in 2015 after finishing previous 007 movie Spectre, having broken his leg during filming.

He is due to retire his licence to kill after the release of the highly anticipated No Time To Die.

Craig (above) said in an interview: "To be completely honest, I was thinking: I don't know if I can do another one of these. I finished filming Spectre with a broken leg."

"I thought, 'Do I have this in me? Do I want to go through all of this?' I needed a break."

He added: "But a little more skill in the answer might have been better. I was joking, but it came across as ungrateful."

No Time To Die will be premiered next Thursday, two days ahead of its general release in cinemas.

Wack 100 claimed to have an unreleased second part of Kim and her ex's infamous tape during a recent appearance on the Bootleg Key podcast.

Wack claimed to have "part two on a laptop" that was "more graphic and better than the first one".

And he said he would only give the never-before-seen video to her estranged husband, Kanye West, adding: "It's the mother of his children."

Kim filmed a sex tape in 2002 with her then-lover Ray J, which was released into the public domain in 2007, just as Kim and her family were getting ready to launch the first series of their hit show Keeping Up With the Kardashians.

Kim famously spoke about the tape during an early episode of the series when her sister Kourtney asked her why she agreed to film the video.

At the time she said: "Because I was horny and I felt like it."

Recently, the reality star admitted discussing the tape in the first season of the show helped her "deal" with her emotions.

In an interview with the Los Angeles Times, Kim, 40, admitted talking about difficult events on the show helped her process events in her life.

She said: "I do think that, obviously, as producers, I'm sure they loved it. And loved us wanting to talk about the elephant in the room.

"And I probably wouldn't have, unless it was for the show. Sometimes I feel like, 'OK, I know I should probably deal and get this over with. Someone's gonna ask me, so I might as well just go ahead and do it'."

"In a way, filming has helped us deal with things, instead of sweeping them under the rug."

"I was always open and honest and wanted to share whatever I was going through."

RUSSIA was responsible for the killing of Alexander Litvinenko, the European Court of Human Rights has found.

The former Russian spy, who became a British citizen, was fatally poisoned with radioactive polonium-210 in London in 2006.

A UK public inquiry conducted 10 years later concluded the killing was "probably approved" by Russian President Vladimir Putin, even though Russia has always denied any involvement in his murder.

The UK inquiry said former KGB bodyguard Andrei Lugovoi and another Russian, Dmitry

Kovtun, deliberately poisoned Mr Litvinenko, probably by putting the radioactive substance into his tea.

Mr Litvinenko's widow, Marina, took the case against Russia to the Strasbourg-based rights court, which has agreed with the UK inquiry's conclusion.

"The court found in particular that there was a strong prima facie case that, in poisoning

Mr Kovtun had been acting as agents of the Russian state," the ECHR ruled.

Both Mr Lugovoi and Mr Kovtun have denied any involvement in the killing.

Mr Litvinenko had fled Russia, where he had been an officer with the FSB security service. He became a fierce critic of President Vladimir Putin and was in the pay of the UK's MI6 secret service.

HOTEL NUT'S GUN BATTLE WITH ALIENS

TRYING TO SAVE THE PLANET:
Samuel Riddell

By FRANK SCHOFIELD
news@sundaysport.co.uk

WHEN a crazed man started firing apparently at random out of a hotel window, concerned cops were worried they had a deranged mass shooter on their hands.

But in fact, part-time ice cream man Samuel Riddell was saving planet Earth from an invasion of space aliens.

In his head, at least.

Riddell, 55, gave the spaced-out explanation to Richmond, Kentucky, police officers after he opened fire at an unnamed hotel, prompting a mass evacuation.

Cops and SWAT teams swooped on the area after receiving reports that a man was firing into the car park.

A woman with Riddell locked herself in the hotel room bathroom as the shots rang out and didn't come out until police arrived.

No-one was injured but bullets went into another occupied hotel room and hit a few cars in the hotel car park.

And kiddies who had crowded around his van, which was parked in the car park, fled sobbing in terror.

Police said they made contact with the shooter before arresting him.

"Mr Riddell told police that he observed aliens in the parking lot

Loon claimed he was shooting at extraterrestrials

and was shooting at them," a police statement reported.

Detectives discovered Mr Riddell was a convicted felon and was in possession of two handguns and a semi-automatic rifle.

Riddell was slapped with several charges, including four counts of wanton endangerment of a police officer, multiple counts of criminal mischief, and possession of a handgun and firearm by a convicted felon.

A police source said: "This fool was convinced that he was all that stood between an invading army of space aliens and the future of all humanity.

"We still do not know quite why he went to the hotel with such an arsenal. He was examined by medics and they took blood samples.

"My guess is that he was on some sort of drug and was higher than a harvest crow picking flies in August when he spied them there space critter dudes. Yes, siree!"

Shocked witnesses said at the very last second, right as the doors were closing, she got off but the mutt didn't make it out of the train.

One witness said that Amy appeared to be waving at someone before being tragically dragged to her death.

Train company officials confirmed that their trains run automatically unless an operator interrupts the door cycle.

TEACHER: DISCIPLINE IS WHITE SUPREMACY

A HIGH school teacher is under fire for calling efforts to make children behave in class "the definition of white supremacy."

Josh Thompson, an English teacher who works at Blacksburg High School in Virginia, posted a since-deleted TikTok video attacking the Positive Behavioural Interventions and Supports programme used in Montgomery County schools.

He called the techniques that try to help reduce disruptive student behaviour "white supremacy with a hug," adding: "It's things like making sure you're following directions, and making sure that you're sitting quietly, and you are in your seat, and all these things that come from white culture.

"The idea of just sitting quiet and being told stuff and taking things in, in a passive stance, is not a thing that's in many cultures.

"So if we're positively enforcing these behaviours, we are by extension positively enforcing elements of white culture.

"That keeps whiteness at the centre, which is the definition of white supremacy."

In another saved video clip, Thompson warned educators: "Instances of police brutality and the murders of black and brown people by police officers is also directly connected to the work that we do."

WHICH TIT DID THIS?

A BRA advert on Instagram turned into a bodacious boob that left half of a model's chest hilariously overinflated.

The advertisement, by British company Lounge Underwear, excessively zoomed into lingerie on one of their model's breasts, but inset it directly over her chest, making it appear much larger than the other.

And the visual gaffe sent the business's 2.5 million online followers howling, over concern for the model's well-being.

But while social media users are stirred up, the bra model herself isn't really bothered by the botch and seems to find it quite funny.

Model Kara Del Toro said: "I completely understand what Lounge was going for with this photo.

"They were trying to highlight the stitching and pattern on the bra, but maybe there could have been better placement for the 'enhanced' photo part.

"That said, I definitely had a good laugh when I was made abreast of the situation and there are absolutely no hard feelings at my end."

The debacle appeared to kick off when Twitter user @jennifergalit first spotted the voluptuous error and wrote: "I thought this lassie on lounge underwear ads had one giant t-t."

The online poster went on to explain how the promo fiasco seemed to be an effort to highlight intricate lace details on the underwear, a Pearl Illustration Balcony Bra and Thong Set that sells for £50.

Salmannsa shows off her killer curves in underwear

BEST BRA NONE

By WENDY THOMAS news@sundaysport.co.uk

ONE influencer was left barely covered as she modelled a string lingerie trend for a new advert.

Instagram star Salmannsa was wearing underwear brand Bluebella's Lorena set in its latest Instagram post.

However, she didn't leave much to the imagination in the racy, black lingerie.

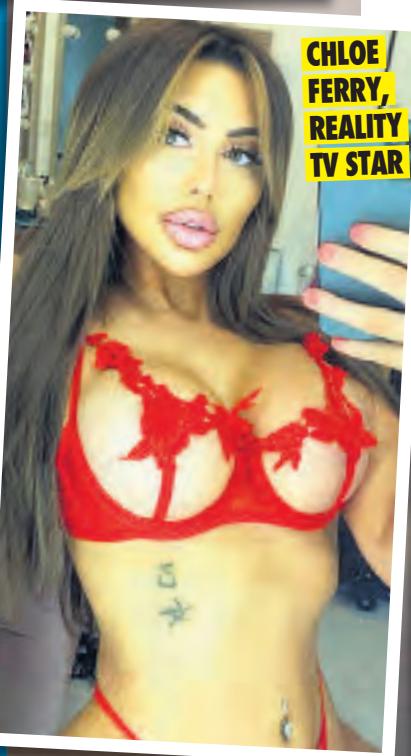

Salmannsa is a personal trainer who describes herself as a "booty builder" on her own Instagram account.

However, her underboob was the main focus in the promo pics as she exposed her incredible curves in the set.

The underwear features tiny straps to cover the wearer's top half, but it does have some well-placed pasties in the nipple area as well as on the stomach.

Sexy Salmannsa is not the only famous face to wear an unconventional tit-sling, as the trend for unusual bras takes off.

Here are FIVE pages featuring some more lovely ladies...

HITLER SCAM THAT THE POSH

THE SUNDAY TIMES

MUGGED: Rupert Murdoch's paper bought UK rights

IN 2000, Konrad Kujau, the German forger, confidence trickster and fantasist at the centre of the sensational Hitler diaries fraud, died in Stuttgart on September 12, aged 62.

That much is official.

But some who knew him remembered only too well his many guises.

Over his lying lifetime, the old fraud had used at least eight aliases and various occupations to con people into parting with their money.

And some still wonder whether the man nicknamed 'The Professor' might still actually be lurking around somewhere.

He was portrayed in the 1991 miniseries Selling Hitler by actor and comedian Alexei Sayle.

But the question lingers... Did he pull off one last grand sting?

KONRAD KUJAU'S PLACE IN 20th-CENTURY HISTORY WAS ASSURED IN APRIL 1983.

The posh Sunday Times and haughty German mag Stern grandly announced the publication of extracts from a staggering 62 volumes of Hitler's diaries. They covered the entire history of the Third Reich from 1933, when the National Socialist party took power in Germany, to its defeat in 1945. They had been unearthed by a Stern employee, Gerd Heidemann.

Less than two weeks later, however, the diaries were unmasked as forgeries.

By JUSIN DUNN

news@sundaysport.co.uk

Straightforward scientific tests conducted by the West German Federal Archives showed the paper and ink used had been manufactured at least eight years after Hitler's death.

Reputations then began to tumble rapidly.

Military

The first to suffer was Heidemann, who turned out to be a researcher rather than a reporter.

He also ran in neo-Nazi circles, had had an affair with Goering's daughter, held parties for leading ex-Nazis, and had a collection of Nazi and other military memorabilia.

In an attempt to save himself, Heidemann revealed how he had located his 'priceless' material, and so the extraordinary figure of Konrad Kujau moved on to the international media stage.

A short, round-faced man with a drooping moustache, Konrad Kujau was born in the Saxon town of Lobau, 40 miles from Dresden, in what became East Germany.

His dad, a shoemaker, was an ardent Nazi supporter until his death in 1944.

Konrad Kujau was brought up in a series of children's homes, fled to the West in 1957 and drifted into a world of casual labour and petty crime.

Gradually, two hidden talents surfaced in his life.

First, he could paint.

SUPER DUPER:
Konrad Kujau was a skilled forger

CONMEN Cheats & FRAUDSTERS

Nothing he did was original, and he had no style of his own, but he could copy a painting almost exactly.

Second, he could forge almost anything, most particularly other folk's handwriting.

Scam

In the mid-1970s, he had the brilliant idea of combining his two talents into a scam.

And if he had not become too greedy, it could have kept him financially comfortable for the rest of his life.

Hitler had been an industrious amateur painter. It has been estimated that he turned out some two to three thousand drawings, paintings and sketches.

So Kujau began to create paintings in Hitler's style, attaching to them a forged letter or certificate confirming their authenticity.

In truth, the letters of authentication were crude and the paper modern, but it must be assumed that he had taken into account an important psychological factor: The power of secrecy.

He knew that his customers felt guilty about their purchases, that collections of Nazi memorabilia were kept secret and that, as a result, no-one would take his forgeries to experts for checking.

Gullible

According to Kujau, it was not until 1978 that he sat down and, using an official Nazi party yearbook for 1935 as a source, began to write, in Hitler's handwriting, a diary for the period.

What he could not have known was that one day a gullible fool like Heidemann would turn up on his doorstep, having heard about the diaries, and then offer £2.5 MILLION of Stern's money for them.

When it happened, he did not, of course, reject the approach.

# HOT 'N' HORNY

NAUGHTY Nickie Ann has explained the time kinky role-play led to a 24-hour sex marathon – and a BROKEN bed!

Blackpool-born Nickie was lifting the lid on her dirtiest ever weekend.

And she said it all began when her fella booked them into a posh hotel room in Manchester.

Nickie said they both pretended to be complete strangers – going from chatting in a bar to heading back to their hotel suite for a lust-fuelled “one-night stand”.

The 32E stunner confessed: “I thought the whole thing was going to be embarrassing and a bit cringe-worthy, to be honest.

“But trying role-play for the first time was a total revelation.

“I had the best sex of my life. It was like we’d just met, but still knew each other intimately in the bedroom.

“We locked the doors of the hotel room and stayed under the duvet for 24 hours.

“I lost count of the amount of times I orgasmed – and we even broke the bed!”

WHAT'S ANNOYING
HIM THIS WEEK?

It's NOT grim up North!

SPORT Towers is and has for decades been located in a place where it seems snooty BBC employees fear to tread...

The dreaded North. It's been revealed this week that some members of the corporation's World Service radio team have put their foot down on plans to move them en masse to Manchester.

In the name of diversity, or inclusivity, or levelling up, or whatever, new-ish director general of the BBC Tim Davie wants to spread his considerable resources more evenly around the country.

To be fair, they made a start on all this years ago with the opening of Media City in Salford.

BBC Radio 5 Live was shunted up the M1, as were considerable bits of children's telly and most of the sports teams.

Now the business news reporting unit from the World Service is supposed to follow them, but around 35 to 40 staff members are refusing to go.

Excuse

And they're using every excuse they can find to avoid simply wailing honestly: "but it's grim oop north!"

The proposal will also leave a "significant gap in expertise" because, clearly, the further you get towards the north pole, the dimmer you become.

Worse still, insiders told The Times that if the refuseniks dig their heels in, they'll all have to be replaced with (perish the thought!) northerners.

I can hear the howls of anguish from the oat milk latte-swilling metropolitan types from here.

And in some ways I can feel their pain.

When I went in the other direction to move to London for a few

CHEAP 'N' CHEERFUL:
Manchester
has a plenty going for it and isn't as grim as many Londoners believe it is

years, I too thought I was suddenly a cut above.

Or, at the very least, no longer northern.

The capital can really get to you like that, if you let it.

But returning home at weekends to see friends and family, I didn't suddenly find myself pointing at planes and shouting in terror: "Firebird!"

Nor did I suddenly have to swap elegant lunches by the Thames at swanky restaurant La Pont de leTour for an out-of-date Scotch egg and a jar of pickled onions.

You will hardly find anyone in the north wearing a flat cap, for instance.

But right across London you can trip over wankers trying to affect the country look.

Despite the fact the nearest any of them will ever get to a farm is sitting on the heated seats of their crocodile leather interior, blacked-out Range Rovers.

And in some ways I can feel their pain.

When I went in the other direction to move to London for a few around the same price. And, in Manchester in particular, you can still get a fine takeaway lunchtime chicken curry with a couple of chapatis thrown in for about four quid.

Admittedly, when it comes to wages, you miss out on the "London weighting" extra granted to many capital workers to help cover the exorbitant cost of living there.

Cheaper

But that is far outweighed by simply not working down there in the first place, not least because the houses and rents are far cheaper.

The Beeb has long been accused of being wildly out of touch with the nation it is supposed to serve.

You have only to look at drama casting line-ups to wonder what kind of street these people live in.

If that is to change, it needs to recognise the clue in its own name.

And start serving the "British" bit of "BBC", and not just London.

Mum in anal sex book row with school

ANAL sex became the surprise agenda item at a school board meeting after a mother chastised educators for stocking a sexually explicit book in school libraries.

The Lake Travis, Texas, Independent School District board meeting about its finances and COVID response took a shock turn when incensed mum Kara Bell (above) took to the lectern to read a racy extract from a book found on middle school shelves.

She was aggrieved that a passage from Out of Darkness, by Ashley Hope Pérez, depicted "cornholing", which she later found out was a euphemism for bum fun.

She raged: "I do not want my children to learn about anal sex in middle school."

"I've never had anal sex. I don't want to have anal sex. I don't want my kids having anal sex."

"I want you to start focusing on education and not public health."

The book has since been pulled.

Incest father's marriage case is thrown out

A JUDGE has thrown out a lawsuit brought by a man who wanted to marry his own daughter and sued to overturn laws against incest.

The unidentified parent in the Manhattan Federal Court papers asked to stay anonymous, as they realised the request was considered "repugnant".

Incest is punishable by up to four years behind bars under New York law, and incestuous marriages are considered void, with the spouses facing a fine and six months in jail.

Marriage licences in the Big Apple's five boroughs require potential spouses to list their birth parents and attest there are no legal impediments to the marriage.

The city quickly moved to dismiss this case, noting the parent hadn't even popped the question before filing the claim.

TITTY TEACHER TOLD TEEN 'I'LL SUCK YOUR COCK'

Explicit messages revealed in court

MESSAGES AND PHOTOS: Renee Underwood will be sentenced next month after pleading guilty

A TEACHER with titanic tits groomed a teen pupil by sending explicit Snapchat messages showing him her huge breasts and offering to "suck his cock".

Renee Jade Underwood, 34, pleaded guilty to an aggravated count of making a child amenable to sexual activity, which she committed between July and August last year.

The interactions began after she exchanged social media account details with the lad, who was in high school.

They revealed the pair mainly communicated over Snapchat.

She began sending him personal messages, telling him about her relationship problems with her partner at the time and saying she had developed feelings for someone else.

Underwood later told the boy that person was him.

Two weeks after that conversation, she sent him another Snapchat message saying: "Can I grasp your cock?"

She told the boy she wanted to take him into his bedroom and put him on the bed.

In another message sent to the victim on the social media app, she said she would do whatever he wanted her to do and "would even suck his cock".

Underwood then said she wanted to put her foot in his lap and rub his hard teen cock to straining hardness.

Her offending was unravelled after sending the boy a Snapchat

This image was seen by the victim's friend, who took a photo of it on his phone.

Unknowingly, she asked the boy to send something in return which he complied with, sending her a photo of himself in his undies that he took earlier.

Underwood was also communicating with another pupil on social media where she told a young girl, known to the victim, that she had sexual dreams about the boy and if he was aged 20 or 25 she would "get with him".

The victim's friend who saw the Snapchat told his father about the photo, who contacted the police.

Underwood was nicked at her home in Berri, South Australia, in September last year.

She is due to be sentenced next month.

YOU may not have heard of Amelia Hamlin but you won't forget the way she lets us all peep at her lovely teats! The model is the daughter of some American telly reality bird and former LA Law actor Harry Hamlin. And when the 20-year-old showed off a frock at the Aadnevik Fashion Show in London, she gave us a glimpse of her lovely teat ends. It emerged earlier this month that Amelia had split from Keeping Up With the Kardashians star Scott Disick. The pair were first romantically linked in October last year but an insider said: "Amelia was the one who ended things."

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

AS a guy in his mid-20s, is it wrong for me to want to use a dildo every time I have sex?

I don't have a regular girlfriend, so my sex life always consists of one-night stands.

I happened to sleep with one girl a few times and she thought it was weird that on each occasion I brought out a huge, pink dildo and asked her to penetrate me with it.

The third time she got dressed and left and said I was in the closet and needed to come out.

I am definitely not gay – I have never had feelings for men, but I just seem to get aroused better this way.

Am I weird?

Anon, Cambridge

Sam says...

CERTAINLY not – lots of straight men take great pleasure from shoving things up their bums.

Dear Sam,

I'M a 19-year-old student who has just moved away from home to go to university.

Until I moved away I was having a fantastic time partying and was banging this lass whose dad owns a big boozier.

Last month we went back there after a club. It was about 2am and we went through to the pool room.

We decided to have a game and every ball we potted meant the other had to take off an item of clothing.

Before long, she was wearing just a pair of hold-up stockings, and the next ball I potted, I challenged her to lay back on the table and spread her legs.

She did and started frigging herself, and just before she came I got my dick out and put my knob in her gob.

We both came and she swallowed the lot and the green baize cloth only had a few damp patches from her juices.

But last week she asked me to leave college to help her and her dad run the pub.

I'm tempted but know that getting an education means a lot to my parents, who never got the chance.

What should I do?

CB, Staffs

Sam says...

TRY it part-time. You'll earn some cash and have more chances to shag her.

Fit fitter unleashed his enormous roll of carpet

Dear Sam,

I'M a married working mum, aged 37, and a few weeks ago I took a day off work because we were having a bedroom carpet fitted at home.

When the fitter arrived he turned out to be a gorgeous lad in his early 20s.

We began chatting and he told he was a part-time stripper nicknamed 'King Dong'.

And I could see why – his cock was bulging through the front of his tight shorts.

I couldn't take my eyes off it and he noticed the look of amazement in my eyes. Then, in a flash, he'd dropped his pants and there it was in all its glory.

Next thing I know, 15 years of being totally faithful went out the window as I sank to my knees and I proceeded to wank and suck that monster dick like my life depended on it.

I was nearly gagging at one point as I deep-throated him, but he somehow managed to push it deeper.

When he shot his load it was like swallowing a pint of milk. Then we rolled around on the bare boards and he gave me the best f**king of my life.

Now I can't get this young stallion out of my mind. What should I do?

LR, North London

Sam says...

CHECK out your local pubs and clubs for male strippers.

I love slipping one in after an oily massage

Dear Sam,

I WORK in a pretty menial job and life's a struggle.

It has got so bad recently that after a few years off looking after the kids, the wife said she'd get a job to make ends meet.

After scanning online job sites for work, and attending a few interviews, my wife announced she'd got a job at a supermarket.

Life became great – every week my wife piled in with bags full of shopping – and more cash.

Then I bumped into one of her pals who leered: "How's she doing at the massage parlour?"

Well, I couldn't believe it, but I confronted the wife and she admitted it.

Oral

I was ashamed, hurt and worried but I calmed down when she said she was earning up to £200 a night and was now able to buy all the things we'd denied ourselves before.

Then she told me of some of the services she provided.

She said she gave only hand relief and oral and never offered full sex.

After hearing the sex menu, I found myself strangely turned on.

I pulled her onto my knee as we sat on the sofa and what followed was absolutely amazing.

We slowly undressed each other, button by button, and I pulled up her jumper to kiss her 34Cs.

Then we stood up and took off the rest of our kit.

She told me to relax and lie on my stomach on the carpet.

Then she pulled out a bottle of oil and began rubbing my back and legs.

My dick was throbbing, so she rolled me onto my back and mounted me.

I was in heaven as I thrust away until she screamed as I brought her to orgasm.

We have sessions like this regularly now, but I still get jealous when she's out at work.

Do you think I should just try to get another, better job, so she can stay at home and service just me?

SD, West Mids

Sam says...

NO – she clearly loves her new job as much as she loves you.

Dear Sam,

I'VE just had sex with my boyfriend of three months for the first time.

Although we'd done plenty of other things before, I didn't realise how small his dick was until it was inside me.

He is great with his mouth and his hands, but when it came down to actual penetration I couldn't feel a thing.

Of course, I moaned and groaned as if I was having a great time – but the truth is I could have fallen asleep.

I am keen on this guy, so is there anything I can buy to make him bigger?

Carrie, Brighton

Sam says...

No. Get used to it or get rid!

DO YOU HAVE A SEX PROBLEM?

email:

agony@sundaysport.co.uk

Mail: Agony, Sunday Sport, 860 Chester Road, Stretford, Manchester M32 0QJ

Sam says...

Dear Sam,

I HAVE just discovered that my wife is having an affair with another woman and is planning to leave me.

Our sex life has always been great and we've tried toys, roleplaying, dressing up and lots of positions.

One session happened on a bank holiday weekend in the Cotswolds – we packed a selection of dildos and vibrators and went straight to our hotel room.

We started off with mutual masturbation, oral, doggy-style nookie and even a bit of anal.

After we had both climaxed several times we got dressed and went downstairs to eat.

But we were soon so horny we couldn't finish our meal and went straight back to our room, stripped off and jumped in the sack again.

This time I pleasured her with a 10-inch dildo and she used a vibrator on me.

After a while we were so turned on we shagged for 25 minutes before I collapsed on top of her and we lay in a hot sweaty heap before falling asleep.

We woke at around 2.30am and did it all again.

This continued until we left on Monday morning.

I have tried talking to my wife about her lesbo lust, but she doesn't want to know.

What can I do to win her back?

KT, east London

Sam says...

THIS lesbo affair might just be temporary.

'I'm going to get on Tinder and make it happen now!'

...WITH
JESSICA MOORE
34E-25-35
FROM BASILDON

MY favourite sexual fantasy is getting some really steamy lesbo action!

Girl-on-girl is my go-to porn to watch but I've never actually been in a situation to get it on with a woman so it's definitely high up on my sexual bucket list.

I'm really turned on by curvy women big peachy bums, huge boobs, thick thighs and flat stomachs.

I like dark hair and girls who look a bit edgy, you know, with tattoos.

#MY SEX FANTASY

I fantasise about kissing a hot girl's soft lips and getting butterflies when she moves her hands over my breasts.

I imagine it would feel amazing for our naked boobs to rub against each other, our nipples getting harder.

I reckon another woman has to be good at going down, after all they know what feels good for them.

A 69er would be heavenly, both of us getting wetter and wetter as we lick and suck each other's clits.

Right, life is too short. I'm going to get myself on Tinder and make this happen right now!

The Grabhems have invited the Stiffies to dinner and their staff, led by butler Small**** and footman Master Bates, hurriedly prepare to receive their honoured guests.

But during preparations some members of staff have their own ideas of how to make the night go with a bang! As dinner approaches it seems everyone's got more than fancy nosh on their minds. Mind you, there is plenty of noshing as well as lots of other filth that will even cause a crease in Carson's keks.

We see plenty of R18 DVDS at the Sport but this one is really something special and one you MUST not miss!

This future classic stars Ava Dalush as Missy, Cathy Heaven as Lucy, Emma Leigh as Betty, Jasmine Jae as Lady Wanda Grabhem, Jasmine James as Fanny Grabhem, Jess West as Lady Stiffie, Lexi Lowe as Abby Grabhem, Ben Dover as Lord Will Grabhem, Big Bad Dave as Smithers and Clarke Kent as Master Bates.

SHOW ME THE HONEY!

WELCOME to the interactive Midweek Sport – where YOU get to choose the stunners appearing on these pages!

That's right fellas, we publish sexy snaps of the babes you most want to see – TOPLESS or even NAKED.

Every Wednesday, Show Me The Honey features the cute curves of the glamour girls you're clamouring for. This service – UNIQUE to British newspapers – is totally FREE!

All you have to do is drop us an email to request@sundaysport.co.uk telling us why you want to see your favourite girl, then sit back and let us do the rest.

VANESSA WALKER

COFFEE barista Joel Newman served glamour girl Vanessa at his Hackney street-food stall last week and hasn't stopped thinking about her since.

Joel, 23, from Brighton, said seeing the Blackpool stunner with her clothes on took him by surprise.

He said: "Vanessa is one of my favourite Sport babes, so when she strutted into the cafe last week I had an instant rock-on.

"She'd got her 32E's covered up though, so I'd love to see a topless photo to jog my memory.

"Seeing her bare boobs will ensure my milk's frothy for weeks to come!"

MISHA

SEXY Misha is tattoo artist Damon Sutcliffe's dream canvas – and he's dying to get her in his studio.

Damon, 42, from Middlesbrough, says Czech babe Misha would be the perfect customer.

But he can't promise he won't get distracted by her massive 34E boobs!

He said: "She's got two hidden tattoos, but there's plenty more skin left uncovered and I'd be happy to fill her gaps.

"Although if she popped into my studio, I think I'd have to close for the day – there'll be more than my tattoo needle prodding her if she came in!"

Haven't seen your favourite model for a while? Drop us a note and we'll put her in the paper! Email request@sundaysport.co.uk

LANE WILLIAMS

BRICKLAYER Tom Collins emailed us asking for a photo of Lane Williams' perfectly formed norts.

The 38-year-old brickie, from Headingley, Leeds, wanted a photo of Luton babe Lane to show his workmates.

He said: "Can I please have a photo of Lane? My workmates reckon Serena Williams is the hottest Williams, but I'm determined to prove them wrong."

"If I show them a photo of Lane, as soon as they see her, they'll be buying me drinks for weeks!"

HORNY Hollie Louise has a naughty confession – she loves to get frisky in PUBLIC!

The blonde babe is always raring to get down and dirty in places she shouldn't.

And Hollie, who boasts 32B curves, said she's determined to play out her fantasy of bonking in a CINEMA, a LIBRARY and even on a BUS!

The blonde scorch, from Barnsley, South Yorks, said: "It would be a major turn-on to get in the back row of a cinema.

"I love being spontaneous and just going for it with a guy, whenever the mood strikes.

"It's such a hot idea doing it at the flicks – it's so naughty as you could be in a room full of people and there's always the risk of getting caught.

"But seeing as it's so dark, and if the back row is empty or doesn't have many people sat there, I think it can be done.

"I love the idea of being in public and just starting to touch each other discreetly."

ON THE ATTACK: Zaha

No more tracking back for star Zaha

PATRICK Vieira has told Wilfried Zaha to forget about defending for Crystal Palace.

The Frenchman wants his main attacking threat to concentrate on going forward rather than tracking back.

And Zaha is very happy to do what his manager wants.

He said: "The manager feels I can add a lot more to the team."

"Goals and assists and the thing he says now is, 'I don't want you involved in that defensive side of the half, stay up on this side,' which is perfect, it saves my energy for attacking, which is the main thing."

"At the end of the day football now is all about stats."

"People will look on Match of the Day whether I have scored and assisted, it doesn't matter if I've tracked back — it is about my goals."

"That is the conversation we've had, I need to score more goals. I need to assist more and I'm up the pitch more."

Attacks

"In a team I am only effective if I'm not tired."

"If I am tired and I've ran past three players, don't even expect my shot to be on target. I am tired, you can't play when you are tired."

"Our game just can't be counter attacks all the time. He has just told me to stay up the pitch and do what I do up the pitch, make the difference."

Zaha has also been talking about why he gives his team-mates so much stick on the pitch.

The Ivory Coast star is often seen kicking off at other Palace players when they don't give him the ball.

Zaha said: "People see me moaning on the pitch, it's just because I'm passionate and I don't like losing so I get annoyed."

"It's not moaning just for the sake of moaning."

"I just demand a lot from my team, that's why I go around moaning and it seems negative but I know we're better than this. I see you lot week in week out, we're better than this."

TOTTENHAM HITMAN STRUGGLING

GET YOUR CHIN UP, HARRY!

Sulking could cost Man City move

HARRY Kane has been told to stop his moping — or Man City won't be back next summer.

The Tottenham striker made it 100% clear that he wanted to sign for the Premier League champions before the season kicked off.

Bids of more than £120m were reportedly made for the 28-year-old but Spurs stood firm with Kane still under contract for another three years.

There was a dispute about when the England skipper reported back for pre-season training after the Euros.

And he has made a poor start to the campaign with no goals in the top flight.

He was particularly poor against Chelsea when he was surprisingly shoved out to the wing by boss Nuno Espírito Santo for the first half.

Even when he moved back into his usual central position, Kane had very little to offer.

By PAUL THOMAS

He has had just three shots on target in the Premier League this season and looks like a player who wishes he was somewhere else.

One former Spurs player — Jamie O'Hara — thinks Kane should be DROPPED if he doesn't book up his ideas.

He said: "I look at his body language and look at the way he's playing and he's not playing very well."

"I kind of enjoyed Spurs at the beginning of the season when he didn't play. I know that sounds bad because he is a great player and he is someone who you need in your team."

"But he's come back into the team and we can't win. When it was Steven Bergwijn, Lucas Moura and Heung-min Son up front, we sat in, we were composed, we soaked up the pressure and tried to hit teams on the counter attack."

Stan Collymore thinks Kane's form could make Pep Guardiola think again about paying so much money for him.

He said: "Clubs will pay the dough for a focused Kane but not a pale imitation of the goalscorer supreme who gets just 10 goals this season."

Mistake

"So if he wants City to come again then he must stop moping and get about doing the business just as he always has done."

Gary Neville has been keeping a close eye on Kane during the early weeks of the season — and he's not impressed by what he's seen.

The top pundit thinks it was a big mistake to maroon him on the wing against Chelsea. And that tactical switch will have done nothing to make Kane think Tottenham is the right place for him.

Neville said: "He's playing for Tottenham and he loves this club, but just being on the left on Sunday, I was thinking in the first half, 'if this doesn't work, it won't go down too well'."

"As soon as Chelsea went 2-0 up, I was watching and thinking he wouldn't be hanging out on the left for much longer."

"Nuno switched it straight away but when he did go central, nothing happened. He didn't get any more involved in the game."

Neville admits it's difficult for Nuno as he knows Kane doesn't want to be at the club however much he "loves" it.

The former Man United defender says he can't blame the striker for wanting to win trophies as his career starts to move into its later stages.

TO HIT TARGET THIS SEASON

NOT HAPPY: Kane had hoped to be a Manchester City player by now

He added: "They are difficult circumstances in the sense that he did want to further his career and win trophies."

"Kane chose this summer to publicise the fact that he wanted to leave, and to go and win trophies but Daniel Levy and Tottenham decided to keep him which is their right as he's under contract."

Target

"But it's never easy when a player wants to leave your club and everyone in the ground and in the dressing room knows that he wants to leave. Things aren't going well."

"We had the stat at Crystal Palace where he'd played his first 90 minutes without a touch in the opposition box or a shot on target. Little things like that start to ring before the game."

Former Spurs manager Tim Sherwood admits he's baffled why Nuno would put Kane out wide in such an important London derby with Chelsea.

He said: "It's really difficult to tell why they have done it."

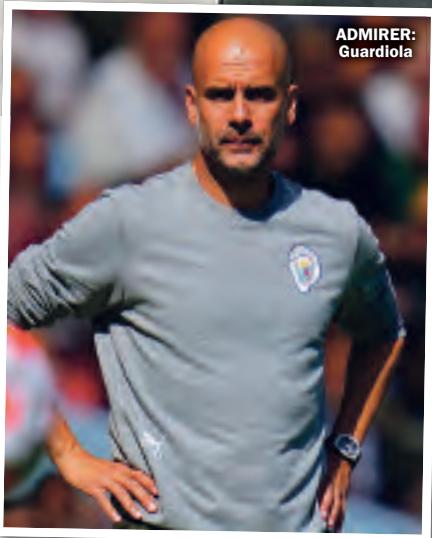

"What I would say is that you want Harry Kane right in the middle of the goal."

"You want him to get on the end of opportunities and you want him backing in on the edge of the box with chances to shoot."

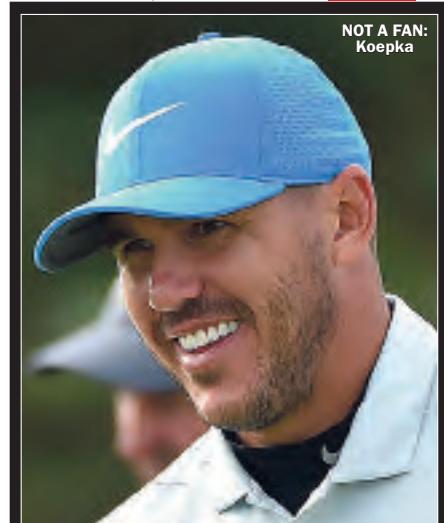

"He has been starved of service, during the early part of the season when he has got back into the side."

Sherwood thinks the manager has to be blamed for his dodgy tactical decision.

He added: "It was such a poor performance. I am not sure about the changes Nuno made as well – Harry Kane was dropping too deep, far too deep for my liking and we saw nothing of Kane."

Feud pair are easy Ryders says Stricker

GOLF: RYDER CUP STARTS ON FRIDAY

AMERICAN Ryder Cup skipper Steve Stricker insists his team is united despite the ongoing feud between Bryson DeChambeau and Brooks Koepka.

The two leading players on the States' side are sworn enemies who have been aiming jibes at each other for the past couple of years.

And Koepka said only the other day that he's not a fan of the Ryder Cup and thinks the team tournament is "a bit odd". Stricker admits it's tricky to manage the big egos but he insists all is well in the camp.

Stricker said: "Will we pair them together? I don't think so at this point but things could change."

"Could always happen but probably not. Again, I had a dinner; they all showed up. We had great conversation, great talks. So I'm not seeing it as an issue at all and they are completely on board."

Worried

"I've talked to Brooks about it. I've had experiences with Brooks over many, many of these teams, and the conversations that I have had with him and what I have personally seen in the team room does not live up to what I was reading in those articles."

"Again, I am not worried about Brooks. He assures me he's healthy."

"He assures me that he is 100% all-in on this team and whatever he needs to do for this team to become the winner at the end of the week."

"I'm not worried about Brooks at all and it's been good talks and he's ready to get down and start playing the Ryder Cup."

"Europe only have one player in the top ten in Jon Rahm and Rory McIlroy admits it will be tough to retain the cup on American soil."

The challenge won't be helped by a lack of fans for the visitors due to travel restrictions.

McIlroy said: "It's becoming tougher to win on the road as it becomes more partisan."

"You are not just playing the other team, you are playing the fans and especially this year where European fans cannot travel. That keeps it interesting in the sense that road win feels much more meaningful."

"I do think there is such a thing as home advantage."

"Most other sports have that so there is no reason that shouldn't happen in the Ryder Cup."

WENGER: I'LL BE BACK

Legend would manage Gunners again

ARSENÉ WENGER says he would come out of retirement to save Arsenal.

The Frenchman spent 22 largely successful years in charge of the Gunners until 2018.

He is now FIFA head of global development and is the man behind the barmy idea to have a World Cup every two years rather than the current four.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The 71-year-old says he could make a sensational return to the dugout.

Wenger added: "Arsenal will be in my heart forever. I don't rule it out."

"There are always people who say 'You are too old' so at the time, maybe I thought they were right, but I am in good shape and I have not completely decided not to do it any more."

Wenger says his later years at Arsenal were much more successful than most people give him credit for.

And he points to the Emirates Stadium as a major achievement.

Wenger added: "I gave the best years of my career to develop what I think is important — the stadium, to pay it back and put the club in a position where it was capable of facing the future and had the potential to do well."

"At the end of the day, above all, we won and what I am most proud about is putting the club in that position."
